

NCSY Canada is Now Hiring!
SPARKS Coordinator / Mashpia
Full-Time or Part-Time | Thornhill, ON

Are you an individual or couple that is passionate about inspiring the next generation of Jewish teens? Do you have a warm home, a big heart, and a deep love for Yiddishkeit?

About SPARKS

SPARKS 4 BOYS and SPARKS 4 GIRLS — a dynamic initiative of NCSY Canada — is seeking an enthusiastic, inspired, and caring individual/couple to serve as a Coordinator / Mashpiim for our teen mentorship and engagement programs.

SPARKS serves Jewish teens from affiliated and frum backgrounds who attend middle and high schools across Toronto. Through personalized mentoring, engaging programming, and authentic connection, we strive to ensure that no Jewish teen falls through the cracks of Jewish life.

Your Role

- Create a warm, welcoming, and open home environment for Shabbos and Yom Tov meals with teens and their families
- Build strong, meaningful relationships with teens through regular learning, one-on-one mentorship, social events, and musical or spiritual experiences
- Design and implement engaging programs that inspire love for Torah, mitzvos, and community
- Lead and support a dedicated team of volunteer mentors who are instrumental in maintaining relationships and reinforcing SPARKS' mission

You Are

- A couple with passion, warmth, and deep empathy for the challenges facing today's youth
- Strong role models, committed to living and modeling Torah values in a relatable way
- Collaborative, organized, and eager to work as part of a larger NCSY team

To Apply

Please send your resume and a joint cover letter to ncsycahr@ncsy.org with "SPARKS" in the subject line.

We thank all applicants for their interest; only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
